

OPEN DIVISION DETAILS

Eligibility requirements

- Dancers must be between the ages of 11 through high school to enroll.
- Dancers currently enrolled in any other Division of CMB may not concurrently enroll for the Open Division.
 - Dancers enrolled in another Division may attend open classes, but must purchase them following the same policies as the general public.

What IS included in Open Division enrollment

- Attendance at any open class offered within the academic, or school year. Open classes run three days per week during CMB's regular academic year.
 - During Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring Breaks, additional classes may be added and these are also included in the Open Division.
 - There are no attendance requirements.
 - Attendance is unlimited.
- Ability for membership in CMB's National Honor Society of Dance Arts.
- Attendance in select supplemental classes.
 - Classes such as Pilates and Modern – exclusions may apply.
- Inclusion in any CMB school activity such as the bi-yearly parties thrown by the NHSDA.
- Eligible to participate in outreach or understudy opportunities at the Artistic Director's request.

What is NOT included in Open Division enrollment

- Eligibility to participate in LMG, the Spring Showcase, or Accolade Ensemble performances.
- Boy's classes.
- Classes in any other Division of CMB (excepting the select supplemental classes).
- Summer open classes.
 - Dancers are able to attend summer open classes, but they are NOT included with Open Division registration. Dancers would purchase classes a la carte or with a class card following the same policies as the general public.
- Dancers in the Open Division are not eligible for priority registration in an Academic Division of CMB (Junior, Standard, Pre-Pro).
 - If a dancer in the Open Division would like to join an Academic Division class, they must wait until registration opens to the public and may enroll if there is space left.
- Pointe instruction.

Tuition information

- Total yearly tuition may be found on the tuition page of our website.
- Payment options will follow the same policies and procedures as the Academic Divisions.
 - A choice of one full payment or two or four installments.
 - Financial aid is available for enrollment in the Open Division.

How to register

- No placement class is required to register, but we do require a meeting. To schedule one, simply reach out to the office or fill out the form on the Open Division page of our website.
- Once enrolled, there is no registration needed for each individual class. Dancers may simply sign in when they arrive.

A quick note

- Open classes are also open to the general public. Anyone from the general public ages 11+ may attend by purchasing a class pass online. These drop-in dancers would be in class with Open Division dancers.
